

Easter Sunday 2020

Hope for Eternity

I Corinthians 15:1-26

Many of us feel as if our lives are running on empty. We have been stripped of all our games and dinners out and friends. New Orleans rests upon a thriving tourist industry that is now gone. Where do we go when the things that make life worth living for so many are absent? The Apostle Paul comes to us this morning with a lesson on how to fill an empty life. This Easter find hope in Christ to bring fullness to what life has left barren.

The Historical Truth of the Christian Faith

1. The _____ of Christ for our _____
2. The _____ of His body
3. His _____ according to the Bible

The _____ is the
_____ of our hope.

We _____ our hope when we
live for this _____ alone.

The Return of _____ is the _____
of our hope.

Easter Sunday 2020

Hope for Eternity

I Corinthians 15:1-26

Many of us feel as if our lives are running on empty. We have been stripped of all our games and dinners out and friends. New Orleans rests upon a thriving tourist industry that is now gone. Where do we go when the things that make life worth living for so many are absent? The Apostle Paul comes to us this morning with a lesson on how to fill an empty life. This Easter find hope in Christ to bring fullness to what life has left barren.

The Historical Truth of the Christian Faith

1. The _____ of Christ for our _____
2. The _____ of His body
3. His _____ according to the Bible

The _____ is the
_____ of our hope.

We _____ our hope when we
live for this _____ alone.

The Return of _____ is the _____
of our hope.