

DAVID King to Tyrant

The Fall into Grace

II Samuel 12:1-31

David fell so deep into sin last week through adultery and murder; it is difficult to imagine a way for him to find light again. Thankfully, our Lord comes to us in grace whenever we fall away from Him into sin. This morning we will see how God desires to restore us to fellowship with His amazing grace.

The first step into _____ comes with an _____ view of our _____.

The second step is to _____ to God in _____ and _____.

Grace comes when we walk in the _____
of life given by _____.

The Fall into Grace

Getting Started

1. If you could tame any wild animal to be your pet, what new pet would you own?
2. What is your favorite movie?

Digging Deeper – Psalm 51

3. In how many different ways does David describe God's cleansing of his sin?
4. How would you describe the joy of salvation and what do you think David means by having a "willing spirit" (vs. 10)?
5. What does David desire to do in light of God's cleansing (vs. 13-14)?
6. How does God desire us to come to Him when we have sinned against His Name (vs. 17)?

Living It Out

7. David convicted himself of murder with his own words. Do you think he regretted this or was thankful for his words?
8. God was gracious in His forgiveness of David, but He still required David to face judgment for his sin. What does this teach us about our forgiveness of others?
9. David fulfilled his duties after he was forgiven. What responsibilities has God laid upon you to do for His Name?
