Living It Out

7. How do we become like Peter and his thirst of tabernacles today?
8. What can our church do to spread the glory of Calvary in our community this fall?

Mark 9:2-13

Jesus lived with a very different set of priorities from the average 21st century Christian. He wasn't living to get a comfortable home and surround Himself with unceasing praise. Jesus lives for the will of the Father. His pleasure comes from the Father's love and the salvation of the rejected. It is time that Jesus' church got our priorities in line by finding our glory in the glory of Christ.
