

WE ALL FALL SHORT

Because God is Impartial

Romans 2:5-11

God is the one and only impartial judge in this world. He will not allow a single sinful or righteous act to escape His notice and attention. Our every deed matters. God's fairness and omniscience should have a profound impact on how we turn to the Lord for salvation. Let's learn from Paul as he teaches us on God's wise and perfect judgments.

We should _____ the righteous _____ of God.

God will _____ all those who do
_____ for His glory.

God will not withhold _____ and _____ from those who walk in selfishness.

Because God is Impartial

Getting Started

1. Would you rather be trapped in a small box for 2 hours or stand on top of a tall building for 2 minutes?
2. What is your favorite summer activity?

Digging Deeper

3. Read Proverbs 24:12. What does this proverb teach us about the judgment of God?
4. Read Acts 10:30-35. How was God impartial toward Cornelius and toward unbelievers who seek him today?
5. How will God reward the believer who does good today?
6. Why do you think Paul singles out the Jew as the first recipient of God's impartial judgments?

Living It Out

7. Why is it a fearful thing to know that God is an impartial judge?
8. Why is it a comforting thing to know that God is an impartial judge?
9. How can we use this truth of God as we speak of the Gospel to a lost and dying world?
