

Isaiah 52-53

Longing for Atonement

1. Atonement is to _____, expiate, or receive a sin offering.
2. The bookends of the poem (52:13-15 and 53:12) are words of _____ for the Servant of the LORD from Yahweh.
3. The Servant performs the work of _____ as He covers, sprinkles, the _____ sins.
4. The Servant will have an _____ appearance that will lead to His _____.
5. Jesus was _____, mocked, _____, spit upon, flogged, and _____.
6. The Servant was pierced, _____, chastised, and scourged.
7. Jesus and the Servant were both _____ under oppression.
8. Jesus and the Servant both died with the _____ and were buried with the _____.
9. The Servant would _____ for the purpose of being a _____ for the many.