

C. Postmillennialism

1. Postmillennialists believe the Church Age is the Millennial Kingdom. The Millennial Kingdom is not a literal 1,000-year period, but it covers the entire church age from Pentecost until the Gospel becomes _____ in every nation and tribe in the world.
2. Postmillennialists believe the Rapture and Second Coming passages all refer to the same event. This event will occur at the end of the _____ / _____ once the Gospel has become the overriding _____ in the world.
3. Postmillennialists are also _____. They believe the events of _____ all occurred in the first generation of the Church. The great destruction of Revelation were a symbolic account of the destruction upon Jerusalem in AD70. There will be final apostasy or judgment for the Gospel will reign throughout the world.
4. Postmillennialists do not hold a distinction between Israel and the Church. There is one people of God who are Israel in the OT and the Church in the New. Gentiles were _____ the promises and purposes of Israel at Pentecost.
5. Postmillennialism began with preachers like _____ in the mid-1600s and continued with leaders such as _____, Charles Hodge, BB Warfield, and _____. Postmillennialism was the most popular eschatology of the Protestant churches from the mid-1600s to the early 20th century.

D. Dispensationalism

1. Dispensationalists believe God has interacted with His people under different _____ in different _____. The current dispensation of the Church Age will be _____ from the Millennial Kingdom. The Millennial Kingdom will be a 1,000-year period covering the entire earth under the reign and rule of Jesus Christ. Satan will be bound for the thousand years and released toward the close of the age for a final deception of man.
2. Dispensationalists believe the Church will not enter _____ as this age will return the world to the dispensation of _____. The Church will be raptured in an unforeseen moment and return with Christ for His Second Coming.
3. Dispensationalists hold the judgments of Revelation as _____ to occur in a seven-year Tribulation. This period will begin with _____ and end with _____. The Tribulation period will consist in judgments unlike any the world has ever seen. The Marriage Supper of the Lamb will occur during these seven years.
4. Dispensationalists hold a distinction between Israel and the Church. The promises made to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob will not be fulfilled in _____, but these will be given to physical descendants of Abraham who follow Abraham's faith in the LORD. The Tribulation and Millennial Kingdom will both focus primarily upon the fulfillment of promises to Israel.
5. Dispensationalism has been the dominate teaching of _____ since the prophetic conferences of the early 20th century. _____ (1800-1882) is held as the founder of Dispensationalism although many church leaders and pastors held dispensational distinctives since the Protestant Reformation.