

How to Live for God's Glory

"Prepare Your Heart for the Kingdom"

Daniel 2:29-49

How do we live for God's glory in a world hostile to His Name? We begin to prepare our hearts to by setting our focus on the eternal Kingdom of God instead of the temporary kingdoms of man. Don't live with your fears and hopes set on political leaders and momentary movements. Let us prepare our hearts for the eternal Kingdom of God!

Be _____ as we receive Divine prophecy

Keep the _____ and temporary rule of man in _____

Live for the only Kingdom that will _____

_____ and _____ God for Divine prophecy

The Growth Group

Living for God's Glory

Daniel 2:29-49

Prepare Your Heart for the Kingdom

Getting Started

1. What major world event stands out the clearest in your memory?
2. What instrument(s) have you taken lessons to learn?

Digging Deeper

3. What would Nebuchadnezzar love and hate about this dream sent from God?
4. Discuss how the Babylonian, Persian, Greek, and Roman empires were viewed by the nations who were subjugated by these kingdoms.
5. Read Psalm 118:19-26. What does this passage tell us about the stone that is God's Kingdom?
6. Read Matthew 10:28-33. How should we speak of the Kingdom of God in this world?

Living It Out

7. Why do you think we are so quick to view today's political leaders as unstoppable or long-standing?
8. Why are humility and thankfulness important character traits for those studying prophecy?
9. How can we help each other to set our hearts on the Kingdom of God more than the kingdoms of men?
 - 1.