

WE ALL FALL SHORT

When We Worship the Lie

Romans 1:24-32

Nothing is more destructive in this world than falsehood and deceit. Lies ruin lives and kill by the millions. Every destructive act in human history is built upon lies we tell to ourselves or lies we tell to another. Paul shows us in Romans 1:24-32 how far we will fall when we worship the lie and abandon the truth.

God _____ us over to our own _____.

We Worship the Lie as We...

set ourselves up as _____ over _____.

burn our _____ with _____ lusts.

tear down _____ to exalt our
_____ of our self-deity.

When We Worship the Lie

Getting Started

1. Have you ever been part of a study for scientific research?
2. What song do you most want to sing in church with the entire church family?

Digging Deeper

3. What is the truth of God in Romans 1:25?
4. Envy is the only sinful trait that Paul says “fills” men. What does it mean to be filled with envy (Romans 1:29)?
5. Why is it a sin to be without understanding (Romans 1:31)?
6. Paul is speaking of the world in general when he says, “they know the ordinance of God.” Read several translations and talk about what the world knows of God.

Living It Out

7. How should the church talk about homosexuality in 21st century America? Think through how this practice comes up in Scripture.
8. How should a Christian respond when he/she feels guilt over these sins after coming to Christ for salvation?
9. Do you have any concerns you want to share in this group about the church gathering together in these times?
